

APPLYING TO DAWSON COLLEGE

Key Points

#1 MEET WITH YOUR SCHOOL GUIDANCE COUNSELLOR

Get help in deciding what program suits your interests and your strengths. Ensure you have the right prerequisites and have competitive grades and averages for your program choice.

#2 SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION ON TIME

Ensure that your online application is complete. Take note of your transaction number verification code that you will use to login to the system to upload required documents for your application and to pay the $30.00 application fee by the March 1st deadline.

#3 SEND/SUBMIT SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

Make sure to upload all required documents that must be submitted (no paper or emailed copies are accepted):

- copy of your birth certificate/ legal status in Canada documents
- letter of intent or letters of recommendation, if required
- Sec 5 - term 2 academic results from Quebec high schools only if your school does not transmit them to us electronically (check with your Guidance Counsellor)

#4 MONITOR YOUR APPLICATION ON THE APPLICATION STATUS PORTAL

As of the first week of March, students can view the status of their application on the Application Status portal link on Dawson's website homepage.

#5 RESERVE YOUR SPOT ON THE APPLICATION STATUS PORTAL ONCE ACCEPTED

If admitted, you have just under 2 weeks to accept your admission offer in order to reserve your spot. This confirmation is done online through the Application Status portal. Be sure to confirm on time to reserve your spot.

#6 ALL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS, IF ADMITTED, WILL RECEIVE A CONDITIONAL OFFER OF ADMISSION

If admitted, your admission is conditional on you meeting ALL of the admission requirements which will be:

- Obtaining your high school diploma
- Obtaining the prerequisites for your program, if any
- Obtaining the final grades and averages that you need to qualify for the program

So you have to keep working hard until the end of the school year to ensure you meet your admission conditions.
